Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Miss/Mrs/Mr/Ms xxxx, DoB xx/xx/19xx, Passport No. xxxx, Chinese National, Application for Further Leave to remain in the UK

I, xxx (DOB xx/xx/19xx), Passport NO. xxxx, am writing to apply for further leave to remain in the UK.

IMMIGRATION HISTORY

I was granted visitor visa on DD/MM/20xx, which until DD/MM/20xx. I first entered the UK on DD/MM/20xx. (如有一个以上的英国签证请一一罗列出来)

Reasons for Further Leave to Remain

According to Page 6, 7 of Leave outside the Immigration Rules Version 1.0

Compelling compassionate factors are, broadly speaking, exceptional circumstances which mean that a refusal of entry clearance or leave to remain would result in unjustifiably harsh consequences for the applicant or their family, but which do not render refusal a breach of ECHR Article 8, refugee convention or obligations. An example might be where an applicant or relevant family member has experienced personal tragedy and there is a specific event to take place or action to be taken in the UK as a result, but which does not in itself render refusal an ECHR breach.

Where the Immigration Rules are not met, and where there are no exceptional circumstances that warrant a grant of leave under Article 8, Article 3 medical or discretionary leave policies, there may be other factors that when taken into account along with the compelling compassionate grounds raised in an individual case, warrant a grant of LOTR. Factors, in the UK or overseas, can be raised in a LOTR application. The decision maker must consider whether the application raises compelling compassionate factors which mean that the Home Office should grant LOTR. Such factors may include:

- emergency or unexpected events*
- a crisis, disaster or accident that could not have been anticipated*

LOTR will not be granted where it is considered reasonable to expect the applicant to leave the UK despite such factors. Factors, in the UK or overseas, can be raised in a LOTR application. These factors can arise in any application type.

On 31/12/2019 Chinese government officially confirmed an outbreak of the coronavirus in Wuhan.

On 23/01/2020 Hubei province has declared a ban on public transport.

On 30/01/2020 The WHO Director-General, Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, declared the novel coronavirus (2019-nCoV) outbreak a public health emergency of international concern (PHEIC).

On 01/02/2020 British Airways suspends flights to and from mainland china. Several airlines have since banned or restricted flights from China.

I had planned to t back to China on DD/MM/YYYY by xxxx flight. (航班号+航空公司) However, because of the current situation I think there is a very high risk of getting coronavirus by taking public transportation. And since China is the epicenter of the coronavirus outbreak, I believe there also is a high risk of infection back in China.

As I am holding a visit visa, I am restricted from entering the UK for more than 180 days a year. However, I have stayed in the UK for XXX days, from DD/MM/YYYY to DD/MM/YYYY. (如果是多次累计的, 请分别列出来) Therefore, I need to apply for FLR(HRO) to stay in the UK legally until the coronavirus problem in China is well resolved. Please kindly understand my situation and extend my visa to the departure date - DD/08/2020 (申请时间加上 6 个月) .

Financial Support

I can support all of cost spend in the UK. My bank account in xxx Bank has GBP /CNY xxx in balance. Please kindly note I am able to cover all living costs of myself. For more details please refer to my enclosed documents.

Please kindly refer to enclosed attachments as following:

1. FLR(O) application form, signed and dated;
2. Original Passport for Mr. /Mrs.XXX, Passport No.XXXX;
3. Witness letter from daughter/son of the main applicant, Mr./Mrs. xxx;

6. China NCoV-2019 News;
7. Chinese policy of sealing off cities.

In the light of the foregoing, I trust that you would be able to grant my Further Leave to Remain in the UK. Please feel free to contact me if you require any other information. Thank you very much.

Kind regards.

Mr. /Mrs xxxx
